KOZMINSKI UNIVERSITY

Kozminski uses Aveneer for document generation and mass signing, ensuring flawless operations during peak admission periods.

|| We needed an efficient tool that allows us to generate documents quickly and a 'mass sign' option to accelerate our recruitment processes."

Katarzyna Wilk-Uljasz, Salesforce Team Lead at Kozminski University

Customer Profile

Kozminski University is a private institution for higher education. It has been recognized by the Financial Times as the leader in business education in Central and Eastern Europe for many years.

Challenge

- The previous document generation solution was slow, error-prone, and required continuous oversight.
- The process for multiple users to sign documents was overly complicated and time-consuming.
- Different departments needed tailored document management options with specific user permissions for signing and generating documents.

Aveneer Value

- Multi-document handling allows for simultaneous creation of multiple documents with a single click.
- Mass signature accelerates document finalisation, enhancing the overall recruitment efficiency.
- Documents are generated within seconds and are error-free, enhancing overall student satisfaction.
- Easy configuration and user-friendly functionality that benefit both administrators and users.
